

The PTA Mission

The mission of the PTA is threefold:

- ⤴ To support and speak on behalf of children and youth in schools, in the community, and before governmental bodies and other organizations that make decisions affecting children; and
- ⤴ To assist parents in developing the skills needed to raise and protect their children; and
- ⤴ To encourage parent and public involvement in the public schools of this nation.

The Objects of the PTA

- ⤴ To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, community, and place of worship.
- ⤴ To raise the standards of home life.
- ⤴ To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
- ⤴ To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth.
- ⤴ To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

Carroll County Council of PTAs Goals

- ⤴ Promote the PTA mission statement and objects of the PTA.
- ⤴ Increase parent, family, and community involvement and expand their roles in all issues involving children in all schools.
- ⤴ Reach out and support all local PTAs and increase local PTA participation at the Council level through personal contact and training.
- ⤴ Continue open communication and sharing of issues between the Carroll County Council of PTAs, the state PTA, the Board of Education, and the superintendent and directors.
